Dear

DD/A REGISTRY
FILE: 20-1-1

Your letter of 16 August 1985 has been referred to me for response. I am keenly sensitive to the disappointment my recent letter to you has caused. The time and effort you have so earnestly invested in seeking a position with us is appreciated. Please understand, however, that competition for positions in this Agency is intense and that many applicants like yourself with solid credentials are turned away. This is, of course, small consolation if you placed great store in making a career with us; and we are sorry that our decision could not be favorable.

Again, I thank you for your interest and wish you success in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

STAT

Dear

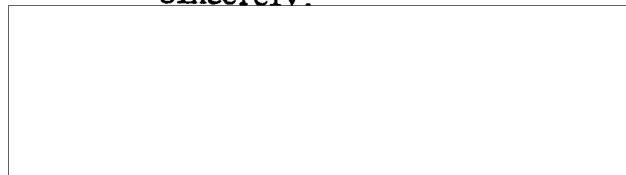

Your employment application has been carefully reviewed by Agency officials against our personnel requirements. Unfortunately, no vacancy has been found which would be compatible with your background and experience.

In accordance with Agency policy, we are not retaining any record of your application.

Your interest in our Agency is very much appreciated, and we regret our response to your application could not be favorable.
